Dick Smith Class Actions – Settlement Period Extension

The court has further extended the date by which the parties can reach a proposed settlement agreement for currently registered group members from 2 December 2019 to 21 February 2020. After that time the registration process ceases to be effective.

This extension is made to accommodate the reconvening of the mediation, which has been ordered to commence no later than 7 February 2020.

We are working to secure a reasonable commercial settlement by 21 February 2020.

Email Subject – “Dick Smith Class Actions – Settlement Period Extension Notice”

Dear XXX,

We refer to our previous communications with you regarding the Court ordered mediation of the Dick Smith Class Actions.

The court has further extended the date by which the parties can reach a proposed settlement agreement for currently registered group members from 2 December 2019 to 21 February 2020. After that time the registration process ceases to be effective.

This extension is made to accommodate the reconvening of the mediation, which has been ordered to commence no later than 7 February 2020.

The parties consider that there is a reasonable chance of settling the matter within the extended Settlement Period. The parties agree to use best endeavours to progress settlement negotiations within the extended timeframe
