PLEADINGS AND PARTICULARS

Note as to terminology and privilege

The 1st to 454th Cross-Defendants (Deloitte) plead to the Third Cross-Claim Statement of Cross-Claim filed 18 March 2019 (Potts Class Action Cross-Claim) as follows, adopting the definitions therein unless otherwise stated. This includes terms defined in the Plaintiffs' Further Amended Joint Statement of Claim (as further amended from time to time) (Plaintiffs' Claim), which have been adopted in the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim. Headings and subheadings adopted in the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim are repeated for ease of reference only.

Admissions made in this Defence are for the purpose of this proceeding only and not because of any or all of the Cross-Defendants know or believe those matters to be true or false.

Nothing in this Defence should be taken to amount to an express or implied waiver of any privilege against self-incrimination or privilege against self-exposure to penalty belonging to the Defendants (or any one of them) or to any of their partners, directors, officers or employees.

The Parties

1. Deloitte admit paragraph 1.
2. Deloitte admit paragraph 2.
3. As to paragraph 3, Deloitte:
 - (a) say that they are (or were, as applicable) partners in an Australian partnership trading as Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu (DTT);
 - (b) say that the membership of DTT changed from time to time and, accordingly, do not admit that all named Cross-Defendants were partners at all material times;
 - (c) say that any conduct engaged in by any of the Cross-Defendants in respect of DTT's audits of DSSH's FY13 Financial Statements (i.e. the FY13 Audit) and DSH's FY14 Financial Statements (i.e. the FY14 Audit) and FY15 Financial Statements (i.e. the FY15 Audit) (together, the DTT Engagements) was conducted by them in the ordinary course of the business of DTT and/or with the authority of DTT's partners at the relevant time;

- (d) admit that, as partners of DTT, they carry on (or carried on, as applicable) business in Australia as providers of (amongst other things) accounting and auditing services, trading under the name "Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu"; and
 - (e) note that in the interests of economy, in the balance of this Defence, Deloitte have not repeated the contentions in sub-paragraphs 3(a) to 3(d), but that the whole of this Defence is subject to Deloitte's position that the membership of DTT changed from time to time; and
 - (f) otherwise, deny the paragraph.
4. Deloitte admit paragraph 4.

The Retainers

5. As to paragraph 5, Deloitte refer to paragraphs 376-378 of Deloitte's Defence to the Plaintiffs' Claim.
6. As to paragraph 6, Deloitte:

Deloitte Report Representations

Deloitte's FY13 Express Representations and Deloitte's FY13 Implied Representations

81. As to paragraph 81, Deloitte refer to and repeat paragraphs 411–416 and 467–468 of Deloitte's Defence to the Plaintiffs' Claim.

Deloitte's FY14 Financial Statements Representations

82. As to paragraph 82, Deloitte
- (a) repeat their responses to paragraph 84; and
 - (b) otherwise, deny the paragraph.
83. As to paragraph 83, Deloitte:
- (a) repeat their responses to paragraph 84;
 - (b) rely on the FY14 Audit Report for its full content and meaning; and

- (c) otherwise, admit the paragraph.
84. As to paragraph 84, Deloitte:
- (a) repeat their response to paragraphs 19 and 83;
 - (b) say that, on 18 August 2014, each of Abboud and Potts provided a management representation letter to DTT dated 18 August 2014 as to matters concerning the FY14 Financial Statements (FY14 Management Representation Letter);
 - (c) say that, on 18 August 2014, each of Abboud and Potts gave a declaration pursuant to s 295A of the Corporations Act (FY14 CEO / CFO Declaration and Assurance) for the year ended 29 June 2014;
 - (d) say that, on 18 August 2014, the DSH Directors gave a declaration pursuant to s 295(5) of the Corporations Act as to the FY14 Financial Statements (FY14 Directors' Declaration);
 - (e) rely on the FY14 Management Representation Letter, the FY14 CEO / CFO Declaration and Assurance and the FY14 Directors Declaration for their full content and meaning;
 - (f) say that, after the giving of the FY14 Management Representation Letter, the FY14 CEO / CFO Declaration and Assurance and the FY14 Directors Declaration, the First Cross-Defendant (as lead auditor) signed the FY14 Audit Report, in his name and in the name of the DTT pursuant to s 324AB(3) of the Corporations Act;
 - (g) say that the FY14 Audit Report was divided into, relevantly, three sections: "Directors' Responsibility for the Financial Report"; "Auditor's Responsibility"; and "Opinion";
 - (h) say that under the heading "Directors' Responsibility for the Financial Report", the FY14 Audit Report stated that the directors of DSH were responsible for the preparation of the FY14 Financial Statements that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act and for such internal control as the directors determine necessary to enable the preparation of the FY14 Financial Statements that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In Note 2, the directors also stated, in accordance with AASB 101 that the consolidated financial statements comply with IFRS;

- (i) under the heading "Auditor's Responsibility", the FY14 Audit Report stated, inter alia, that:
 - (i) DTT's responsibility was to express an opinion on the financial report based on their audit. DTT conducted their audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards required that DTT comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report was free from material misstatement;
 - (ii) an audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to DSH's preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view, in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of DSH's internal control;
 - (iii) an audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the DSH directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report; and
 - (iv) DTT believed that the audit evidence that they had obtained was sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for their audit opinion;
- (j) under the heading "Opinion", the FY14 Audit Report stated, inter alia, that in DTT's opinion:
 - (i) the FY14 Financial Statements was in accordance with the Corporations Act, including:
 - (1) giving a true and fair view of the consolidated entity's financial position as at 29 June 2014 and of its performance for the year ended on that date; and
 - (2) complying with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Regulations; and

- (ii) the FY14 Financial Statements also complies with IFRS as disclosed in Note 2;
- (k) will rely at trial on the FY14 Audit Report and FY14 Financial Statements for their full content and meaning; and
- (l) otherwise, deny the paragraph.

FY15 Financial Statements Representations

85. As to paragraph 85, Deloitte:

- (a) repeat their response to paragraph 87; and
- (b) otherwise, deny the paragraph.

86. As to paragraph 86, Deloitte:

- (a) repeat their response to paragraph 87;
- (b) rely on the FY15 Audit Report for its full content and meaning; and
- (c) otherwise, admit the paragraph.

87. As to paragraph 87, Deloitte:

- (a) repeat their responses to paragraphs 23 and 86;
- (b) say that, on 17 August 2015, each of Abboud and Potts provided a management representation letter to DTT dated 17 August 2015 as to matters concerning the FY15 Financial Report (FY15 Management Representation Letter);
- (c) say that, on 17 August 2015, each of Abboud and Potts gave a declaration pursuant to s 295A of the Corporations Act (FY15 CEO / CFO Declaration and Assurance) for "the half year ended 28 December 2014" (which Deloitte says was intended to refer to the "year ended 28 June 2015");
- (d) say that, on 17 August 2015, the DSH Directors gave a declaration pursuant to s 295(5) of the Corporations Act as to the FY15 Financial Report (FY15 Directors' Declaration);
- (e) rely on the FY15 Management Representation Letter, FY15 CEO / CFO Declaration and Assurance and the FY15 Directors Declaration for their full content and meaning; and
- (f) say that, after the giving of the FY15 Management Representation Letter, the FY15 CEO / CFO Declaration and Assurance and the FY15 Directors

Declaration the First Cross-Defendant (as lead auditor) signed the FY15 Audit Report, in his name and in the name of DTT pursuant to s 324AB(3) of the Corporations Act;

- (g) say that the FY15 Audit Report was divided into, relevantly, three sections: "Directors' Responsibility for the Financial Report"; "Auditor's Responsibility"; and "Opinion";
- (h) say that under the heading "Directors' Responsibility for the Financial Report", the FY15 Audit Report stated that the directors of DSH were responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act and for such internal control as the directors determine necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In Note 2, the directors also stated, in accordance with AASB 101 that the consolidated financial statements comply with IFRS;
- (i) under the heading "Auditor's Responsibility", the FY15 Audit Report stated, inter alia, that:
 - (i) DTT's responsibility was to express an opinion on the financial report based on their audit. DTT conducted their audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards required that DTT comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report was free from material misstatement;
 - (ii) an audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to DSH's preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view, in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of DSH's internal control;

- (iii) an audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the DSH directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report; and
 - (iv) DTT believed that the audit evidence that they had obtained was sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for their audit opinion;
- (j) under the heading "Opinion", the FY15 Audit Report stated, inter alia, that in DTT's opinion:
 - (i) the FY15 Financial Report was in accordance with the Corporations Act, including:
 - (A) giving a true and fair view of the consolidated entity's financial position as at 28 June 2015 and of its performance for the year ended on that date; and
 - (B) complying with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Regulations; and
 - (ii) the FY15 Financial Report also complies with IFRS as disclosed in Note 2;
- (k) will rely at trial on the FY15 Audit Report and FY15 Financial Report for their full content and meaning; and
- (l) otherwise, deny the paragraph.

- 129. Deloitte deny that Abboud is entitled to any of the relief claimed or at all.

OTHER DEFENCES

In further or alternative answer to the whole of the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, Deloitte plead as follows:

- 130. The FY13 Retainer, the FY14 Retainer and the FY15 Retainer (together, the Retainers) each provided that the DTT Engagements would be conducted on the basis that:
 - (a) the directors acknowledged and understood that they had the responsibility:
 - (i) for the preparation of, relevantly, the financial reports which were the subject of the Retainers ((i.e. relevantly, the FY13 Financial Statements, FY14 Financial Statements and FY15 Financial Statements, together, the Financial Reports) that gave a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act;
 - (ii) for such internal control as the directors determined was necessary to enable the preparation of the Financial Reports that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; and
 - (iii) to provide Deloitte with:
 - (1) access to all information of which the directors and management were aware that was relevant to the preparation of the Financial Reports such as records, documentation and other matters;

- (2) additional information that Deloitte may request from the directors and management for the purpose of the Retainers; and
 - (3) unrestricted access to persons within the entity from whom Deloitte determined it necessary to obtain evidence;
- (b) DSSH or DSH (as relevant) was responsible for, amongst other things, providing Deloitte with accurate and complete information and all information that was relevant to the services to be provided under the Retainers.

Conduct of directors and management

131. Deloitte refer to their paragraphs 44 and 45 of the Plaintiffs' Claim and their response thereto, and say that at all material times the directors of DSSH or DSH (as relevant) were responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the Financial Reports in accordance with Accounting Standards (including the Australian Accounting Standards) and the Corporations Act, and such responsibility included establishing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Particulars

Corporations Act Chapter 2M, Part 2M.3

132. By letter dated 18 August 2014 (in connection with the consolidated financial statements of DSH and its controlled entities for the year ended 28 June 2014) (i.e. the FY14 CEO / CFO Declaration and Assurance) and by letter dated on or about 17 August 2015 (in connection with the consolidated financial statements of DSH and its controlled entities for the year ended 29 June 2015) (i.e. the FY15 CEO / CFO Declaration and Assurance), each of Abboud and Potts gave a declaration pursuant to s 295A of the Corporations Act (together, the CEO / CFO Declarations and Assurances):
- (a) which was provided to the Board prior to the Board approving DSH's financial statements;

- (b) which included statements to the effect that, to the best of each of their knowledge:
 - (i) the financial records of DSH had been properly maintained in accordance with s 286 of the Corporations Act;
 - (ii) the financial statements and the accompanying notes complied with the appropriate accounting standards;
 - (iii) the financial statements and accompanying notes gave a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of DSH for the financial year;
 - (iv) DSH had complied with all other matters prescribed by the Corporations Regulations in relation to the financial statements and notes;
 - (v) the financial report was founded on a sound system of risk management and internal compliance and control;
 - (vi) DSH's risk management and internal compliance and control system was operating efficiently and effectively in all material aspects; and
 - (c) upon the entire terms of which Deloitte rely for their full content and meaning.
133. On 23 October 2013, 18 August 2014, and 17 August 2015, the directors of DSSH or DSH (as applicable) made a declaration in the FY13 Financial Statements (FY13 Directors' Declarations), FY14 Directors' Declaration and the FY15 Directors' Declaration (together, the Directors' Declarations):
- (a) to the effect that:
 - (i) in the directors' opinion, there were reasonable grounds to believe that DSH and the consolidated entity would be able to pay its debts as and when they became due and payable;
 - (ii) in the directors' opinion, the financial statement and notes attached thereto were in accordance with the Corporations Act, including compliance with accounting standards and giving a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of DSSH or DSH (as relevant) and the consolidated entity; and
 - (iii) in the directors' opinion, the financial statements and notes attached thereto were in compliance with the International Financial Reporting Standards as stated in Note 2 of the financial statements; and

- (b) upon the entire terms of which Deloitte rely for their full content and meaning.
134. By letter dated 23 October 2013 (in respect of the FY13 Audit) (FY13 Management Representation Letter), the FY14 Management Representation Letter and FY15 Management Representation Letter (together, the Management Representation Letters), Abboud and Fawaz or Abboud and Potts (as applicable) provided a representation letter to DTT (Management Representation Letters):
- (a) for the purpose of DTT expressing an opinion as to whether the relevant financial report gave a true and fair view in accordance with the Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act;
 - (b) in which Abboud and Fawaz (in respect of FY2013) and Abboud and Potts (in respect of FY2014 and FY2015) each confirmed to DTT, among other matters, that:
 - (i) they had fulfilled their responsibilities as set out in the relevant audit engagement (as to which in particular see paragraph 130 above), for the preparation of the financial report in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act, in particular that the financial report gave a true and fair view in accordance therewith;
 - (ii) they had provided DTT with:
 - (1) access to all information of which they were aware was relevant to the preparation of the relevant financial report such as records, documentation and other matters;
 - (2) additional information DTT have requested from them for the purpose of the audit;
 - (3) unrestricted access to the persons within the entity from whom DTT determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence;
 - (4) all information required by the Corporations Act and all requested information, explanations and assistance for the purposes of the audit;
 - (iii) all transactions had been recorded in the accounting records and were reflected in the financial report;
 - (iv) they were responsible for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud;

- (v) significant assumptions used by them in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, were reasonable;
- (vi) the effects of uncorrected misstatements (in the case of the FY13 Audit and the FY14 Audit) or unadjusted misstatements and disclosure deficiencies (in the case of the FY15 Audit) were immaterial, individually and in aggregate, to the financial report as a whole, and a summary of such items was attached to the relevant representation letter;
- (vii) the selection and application of accounting policies as described in the notes in the financial report were appropriate;
- (viii) liabilities, both actual and contingent, had been properly recorded and, where appropriate, adequately disclosed in the financial report;
- (ix) they had communicated to DTT all deficiencies in internal control of which they were aware;
- (x) in respect of FY2014 and FY2015, they had considered the requirements of Accounting Standard AASB 136 Impairment of Assets when assessing the impairment of assets and in ensuring that no assets were stated in excess of their recoverable amount, and that they had communicated to DTT all indicators of impairment and where those existed, they had conducted appropriate impairment testing on the relevant asset;
- (xi) in respect of the FY2014 Audit and the FY2015 Audit, they had no plans to abandon lines of product or other plans or intentions that would result in any excess or obsolete inventory, and no inventory was stated in an amount in excess of net realisable value;
- (xii) in respect of the FY2014 Audit and the FY2015 Audit, where assets and liabilities were recorded at their fair value, the value attributed to these assets and liabilities was, in the opinion of directors and management, the fair value; and they were responsible for the reasonableness of any significant assumptions underlying the valuation, including consideration of whether they appropriately reflect their intent and ability to carry out specific courses of action;
- (xiii) (xiii) in respect of the FY 2014 Audit, they had raised a liability as at 29 June 2014 for management's best estimate of costs associated with existing leases on underperforming stores prior to the actual lease expiration date, including outstanding penalties and make good costs; they were reviewing the performance of those stores on a regular basis and it was their intention to exit those stores within the next 12 months;

(xiv) in respect of the FY2014 Audit and the FY2015 Audit, DSH and its consolidated entities had not breached any covenants on its financing facility during any of the periods reported and did not expect to breach any covenants in future periods; and they had fully disclosed to DTT all covenants and information related to how they determined their compliance with the terms of the covenants;

(xv) in respect of the FY2014 Audit and the FY2015 Audit, they had performed a detailed review of the amount and nature of rebates received or owed from suppliers during the relevant year ended; the rebates recognised in this period had been appropriately recognised and presented in the financial statements in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards; in particular they confirmed that the O&A rebates recognised as receivables as at:

(A) in the case of the FY2014 Report, 29 June 2014 totalling $16.9 million;

(B) in the case of the FY2015 Report, 28 June 2015 totalling $32.5 million; were recoverable in full from the vendors; in addition those amounts relate to additional support received from vendors to market or clear products in the relevant year ended and were not to be deferred and recognised in future periods;

(c) upon the entire terms of which Deloitte rely for their full content and meaning.

135. For the purposes of this defence to the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim only and without admission, Deloitte:

(a) repeat sections C2 to C10 of the Plaintiffs' Claim;

(b) say that, if the allegations in the Plaintiffs' Claim are made out, then each of Abboud and Potts knew the facts and matters asserted in sections C2 to C10 of the Plaintiffs' Claim;

- (c) say that if the allegations in the Plaintiffs' claim are made out, then by reason of the matters set out in subparagraph (a) or alternatively paragraph (b) above:
 - (i) the CEO/CFO Declarations and Assurances pleaded in paragraph 132;
 - (ii) the Directors Declarations pleaded in paragraph 133;
 - (iii) the Management Representation Letters pleaded in paragraph 134, were misleading or deceptive or likely to mislead or deceive;
- (d) say that each of the matters pleaded in subparagraph (a) above, or alternatively subparagraph (b) above:
 - (i) a matter that ought to have been disclosed to DTT pursuant to the terms of DTT's Retainers;
 - (ii) a matter of the type which Abboud and/or Potts and/or Fawaz (as relevant) represented had been disclosed to DTT in Management Representation Letters;
 - (iii) a matter of the type that a reasonable director or officer of a company in the position of Abboud or Potts or Fawaz (as relevant) would have disclosed to DTT;
 - (iv) a matter of the type that a reasonable auditor in the position of DTT would have expected would have been, in the circumstances, disclosed; and
- (e) say that neither Abboud nor Potts nor Fawaz (as relevant) disclosed any of the matters set out in subparagraph (a) above, or alternatively subparagraph (b) above to DTT:
 - (i) at the time Abboud and/or Potts and/or Fawaz (as relevant) became aware of each of those matters; or
 - (ii) alternatively, at a reasonable time after becoming aware of each of those matters; or
 - (iii) alternatively, at all.

136. If and to the extent Abboud or Potts is liable pursuant to the Plaintiffs' Claim in respect of loss caused to the Plaintiffs, then in light of:

- (a) the following allegations, if and to the extent they are made out:
 - (i) the Plaintiffs' allegations in the Plaintiffs' Claim against Abboud;

- (ii) the Plaintiffs' allegations in the Plaintiffs' Claim against Potts;
 - (iii) the Plaintiffs' allegations in the Plaintiffs' Claim against DSH;
 - (iv) the allegations made by the plaintiffs in Proceeding No 2017/81938 (the Bank Case) against Abboud;
 - (v) the allegations made by the plaintiffs in the Bank Case against Potts;
 - (vi) the allegations made by the plaintiff in Proceedings No 2017/81927 (the Company Case) against Abboud;
 - (vii) the allegations made by the plaintiff in the Company Case against Potts;
 - (viii) the allegations made by the plaintiff in the Company Case against Murray, Raine, Ishak, Tomlinson, Wavish and Cave (together, the NEDs);
- (b) further or alternatively the matters alleged in paragraphs 131 to 135;
then Abboud and/or Potts and/or Fawaz and/or the NEDs (as applicable):
- (c) engaged in conduct that was misleading or deceptive, or likely to mislead or deceive, within the meaning of s 1041H of the Corporations Act, s 12DA of the ASIC Act and s 18 of the ACL; and
 - (d) breached his duty to DSSH and/or DSH to discharge his duties as a director and officer with reasonable care and diligence.

137. For the purposes of this defence, Deloitte:

- (a) say that the acts of Abboud and/or Potts and/or the other directors of DSSH or DSH at the relevant times (i.e. including the NEDs) (Other Directors) and/or Fawaz are attributable to DSSH or DSH (as relevant); and
- (b) in the premises of subparagraph (a), the contraventions of the individuals referred to in that subparagraph are contraventions of DSSH and DSH (as relevant).

Contributory negligence and mitigation

138. If any of the Plaintiffs' allegations in the Plaintiffs' Claim are made out, and the Plaintiffs suffered loss thereby, then that loss was suffered by reason of the wrongdoing of Potts as set out in:

- (a) paragraph 136; and

(b) the Plaintiffs' Claim.

139. By reason of the matters set out in paragraph 138 above Deloitte's liability (if any) to Potts is to be reduced to the extent which the court considers just and equitable having regard to Potts' share in responsibility for the loss, as a result of the operation of s 1041I(1B) of the Corporations Act, s 12GF(1B) of the ASIC Act, and s 137B of the Competition and Consumer Act (CCA).

Proportionate liability

140. In respect of each claim alleged against Deloitte in the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim that is an apportionable claim for the purposes of s 34 of the CLA, s 1041L of the Corporations Act, s12GP of the ASIC Act and s87CB of the CCA (Apportionable Claims):

- (a) if Deloitte is liable to Potts in respect of any of the Apportionable Claims, then for the reasons set out at paragraph 136 above, Abboud is a person whose acts or omissions caused the loss allegedly suffered by Potts which is the subject of the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, and therefore:
 - (i) Abboud is a "concurrent wrongdoer" within the meaning of s 34 of the CLA, s 1041L of the Corporations Act, s 12GP of the ASIC Act and s 87CB of the CCA;
 - (ii) Deloitte's liability (if any) to Potts is, by that reason, limited by s 35 of the CLA, s 1041N of the Corporations Act, 87CD of the CCA and s 12GR of the ASIC Act, to an amount reflecting that proportion of the damage or loss claimed that the Court considers is just having regard to the extent of Abboud's responsibility for that damage or loss;
- (b) further or in the alternative, if Deloitte is liable to Potts in respect of any of the Apportionable Claims, then by reason of:
 - (i) the matters alleged against the NEDs by the Plaintiff in the Company Case; and
 - (ii) the matters stated in paragraph 133 and 135 above (in respect of the Directors' Declarations), each of the Other Directors (as applicable) is a person whose acts or omissions caused the loss allegedly suffered by Potts which is the subject of the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, and therefore:

- (iii) each of the Other Directors (as applicable) is a “concurrent wrongdoer” within the meaning of s 34 of the CLA, s 1041L of the Corporations Act, s 12GP of the ASIC Act and s 87CB of the CCA;
 - (iv) Deloitte’s liability (if any) to Potts is, by that reason, limited by s 35 of the CLA, s 1041N of the Corporations Act, s 87CD of the CCA and s 12GR of the ASIC Act, to an amount reflecting that proportion of the damage or loss claimed that the Court considers is just having regard to the extent of the Other Directors’ (as applicable) responsibility for that damage or loss.
- (c) Further or in the alternative, if Deloitte is liable to Potts in respect of any of the Apportionable Claims that relate to FY2013, then by reason of the matters in paragraph 136 above, Fawaz is a person whose acts or omissions caused the loss allegedly suffered by Potts which is the subject of the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, and therefore:
 - (i) Fawaz is a “concurrent wrongdoer” within the meaning of s 34 of the CLA, s 1041L of the Corporations Act, s 12GP of the ASIC Act and s 87CB of the ACL in respect of any loss suffered by Potts in relation to FY2013; and
 - (ii) Deloitte’s liability (if any) to Potts is, by that reason, limited by s 35 of the CLA, s 1041N of the Corporations Act, s 87CD of the CCA and s 12GR of the ASIC Act, to an amount reflecting that proportion of the damage or loss claimed that the Court considers is just having regard to the extent of Fawaz’s responsibility for that damage or loss.
- (d) Further or in the alternative, if Deloitte is liable to Potts in respect of any of the Apportionable Claims, then by reason of the matters in paragraph 136 and 137 above, DSSH and DSH are each a person whose acts or omissions caused the loss allegedly suffered by Potts which is the subject of the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, and therefore:
 - (i) DSH and DSSH (as relevant) is a “concurrent wrongdoer” within the meaning of s 34 of the CLA, s 1041L of the Corporations Act, s 12GP of the ASIC Act and s 87CB of the CCA; and
 - (ii) Deloitte’s liability (if any) to Potts is, by that reason, limited by s 35 of the CLA, s 1041N of the Corporations Act, s 12GR of the ASIC Act, and s 87CD(1) of the CCA, to an amount reflecting that proportion of the damage or loss claimed that the Court considers is just having regard to the extent of DSSH's or DSH's (as relevant) responsibility for that damage or loss.

Limitation of liability – accountants' scheme / retainer

141. In further or alternative answer to the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, without admission and for the purposes of this defence only, Deloitte:

- (a) say that if, which is denied, Deloitte are liable for any of the loss alleged in the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, that liability is limited in accordance with:
 - (i) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia (NSW) Scheme approved under the Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW) (Professional Standards Act) commencing on 8 October 2007 (as extended);
 - (ii) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia (Victoria) Scheme approved under the Professional Standards Act 2003 (Vic) (Professional Standards Act (Vic)) commencing on 8 October 2007 (as extended);
 - (iii) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia (NSW) Scheme approved under the Professional Standards Act commencing on 8 October 2013; or
 - (iv) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia (VIC) Scheme approved under the Professional Standards Act (Vic) commencing on 8 October 2013;
 - (v) the Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand Professional Standards Scheme (NSW) (including as amended) approved under the Professional Standards Act commencing on 8 October 2014;
 - (vi) the Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand Professional Standards Scheme (Victoria) (including as amended) approved under the Professional Standards Act (Vic) commencing on 8 October 2014; and
- (b) say that, if and to the extent that the schemes pleaded in paragraph (a) above do not apply and Deloitte are liable for any loss alleged in the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, that liability is limited in accordance with the Retainers, including but not limited to cl 12 of the Standard Terms and Conditions that form part of the FY13 Retainer and cl 13 of the Standard Terms and Conditions that form part of the FY14 Retainer and the FY15 Retainer.

Relief from liability – Corporations Act

142. Further or in the alternative, in reliance on privilege against self-incrimination or privilege against exposure to penalty, Deloitte does not at this time assert a positive defence based on s 1317S (by reason of s 1041I(4)), or s 1318 of the Corporations Act but reserves their right to do so at an appropriate time.

Civil Liability Act

143. Further or in the alternative, in answer to the whole of the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, Deloitte:
- (a) say that if (which is not admitted) the claims made by Potts in the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim are claims for harm resulting from negligence within the meaning of s 5A of the Civil Liability Act (CLA); then
 - (b) they say that, in respect of the claims in the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, it is not appropriate for the scope of the Deloitte's liability to extend to the harm Potts allegedly suffered within the meaning of s 5D(1) of the CLA.
144. Further or in the alternative, in answer to the whole of the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, Deloitte say that if (which is denied) any relevant risk of harm existed and was not insignificant in respect of the matters alleged in the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim, then in respect of all claims to which Part 1A of the CLA applies:
- (a) the risk of harm was obvious within the meaning of s 5F of the CLA;
 - (b) Potts is presumed to have been aware of the risk of harm, by reason of s 5G of the CLA; and
 - (c) the risk of harm was inherent, within the meaning of s 5I of the CLA.
145. Further or in the alternative, in performing the FY2013 Retainer, the FY2014 Retainer and the FY2015 Retainer, Deloitte acted in a manner that (at the time the services were provided) was widely accepted in Australia by peer professional opinion as competent professional practice within the meaning of s 5O(1) of the Civil Liability Act and accordingly are not liable for any loss or damage alleged in the Potts Class Action Cross-Claim.

SIGNATURE OF LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE

I certify under clause 4 of Schedule 2 to the Legal Profession Uniform Law Application Act 2014 that there are reasonable grounds for believing on the basis of provable facts and a reasonably arguable view of the law that the defence to the claim for damages in these proceedings has reasonable prospects of success.
