DEFENCESRelief pursuant to section 1318 of the Corporations Act

161. In further answer to the whole of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement, Abboud says that, if it is established that he engaged in misleading or deceptive conduct in contravention of the Corporations Act, the ASIC Act and/or the ACL NSW, as pleaded in paragraphs 103 and 120 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement (which is denied), he acted honestly and, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, he ought fairly be excused for the contravening conduct pursuant to s 1318 of the Corporations Act.

Proportionate Liability – Apportionable Claims

162. In further answer to the whole of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement, Abboud says that, if (which is denied) Abboud contravened s12DA of the ASIC Act or s 1041H of the Corporations Act and/or s 18 of the ACL NSW, and is liable to Deloitte and/or DCF for any loss or damage which resulted from any such contravention, then each of the claims of Deloitte and DCF against Abboud in respect of such loss or damage is an apportionable claim within the meaning of (respectively) s 1041L of the Corporations Act, s 12GP of the ASIC Act and s 34 of the Civil Liability Act 2002 (NSW) (CLA).
163. If it is established (as pleaded in paragraph 75 and 83 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement) that, by reason of the Plaintiffs' Claim being made out, Abboud knew the matters in paragraph 75 which relate to FY13 (which is denied), then:
- (a) any such matters were also known to the other directors of DSSH;

Particulars

In pleading knowledge of directors relating to FY13, the Plaintiffs' Claim does not draw any distinction between the knowledge of Abboud and the knowledge of the other directors (see paragraph 252 of the Plaintiffs' Claim).

- (b) if Abboud engaged in misleading or deceptive conduct in contravention of provisions of the Corporations Act, the ASIC Act and/or the ACL NSW in joining in the FY13 Directors' Declaration, Directors' Adoption of the FY13 Report, the Directors' Issue of the FY13 Report, in circumstances where he had knowledge of such matters (which is denied), then each of the other directors of DSSH likewise engaged in misleading or deceptive conduct in contravention of the same provisions in circumstances where they had knowledge of those same matters;
- (c) insofar as Deloitte suffered any loss by reason of the FY13 Directors' Declaration, Directors' Adoption of the FY13 Report, the Directors' Issue of the FY13 Report (as alleged against Abboud, which is denied), then the conduct of the other directors of DSSH referred to in subparagraph (b) above caused or contributed to that same loss or damage; and
- (d) in the premises, each of the other directors of DSSH and (if the matters established in paragraph 8 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement are established) DSSH is a person whose acts or omissions caused the loss allegedly suffered by Deloitte which is the subject of their claim in respect of the FY13 Audit, and therefore, each is a concurrent wrongdoer within the meaning of s 1041L of the CA, s 12GP of the ASIC Act and s 34 of the CLA.

164. Further or alternatively, in the event that Deloitte establishes that:

- (a) Potts engaged in conduct in contravention of the Corporations Act, the ASIC Act and/or the ACL NSW (as pleaded in paragraphs 104, 106 and 120 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement);
- (b) DSH engaged in conduct in contravention of the Corporations Act, the ASIC Act and/or the ACL NSW (as pleaded in paragraphs 105, 107 and 120 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement), or breached the terms of its contract with Deloitte (as pleaded in paragraph 124 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement); and
- (c) the conduct in subparagraphs (a) and/or (b) above caused and/or contributed to the loss pleaded by Deloitte against each of Potts, Abboud and DSH in paragraphs 144-151 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement;

each of Potts, Abboud and DSH is a person whose acts or omissions caused the loss allegedly suffered by Deloitte which is the subject of their claim in respect of the Prospectus, the FY14 Audit and the FY15 Audit, and therefore, each is a concurrent wrongdoer within the meaning of s 1041L of the CA, s 12GP of the ASIC Act and s 34 of the CLA.

165. Further or alternatively, Abboud:

- (a) repeats paragraphs 5-10, 54, 55(e)-(h), 56(c)-(f), 57(e)-(h), 60-75, 79, 85-88, 90(c) and 102-104 of the Sixth Cross-Claim Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement in Proceeding No. 2017/00081927; and
- (b) says that if the matters pleaded in paragraphs 106-109 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement are established, and further or alternatively, if the matters referred to in paragraph (a) are established, then:
 - (i) each of Robert Murray, Lorna Raine, Robert Ishak, Jamie Tomlinson, William Wavish and Phillip Cave (the NEDs) engaged in conduct in contravention of the Corporations Act, the ASIC Act and/or the ACL NSW;
 - (ii) but for such conduct, Deloitte would not have taken the steps pleaded in paragraphs 59, 67-68 and 71-72 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement in this proceeding; and
 - (iii) in the premises, the contravening conduct referred to in subparagraph (i) above caused and/or contributed to the same loss or damage which is claimed by Deloitte against Abboud in respect of the Prospectus, the FY14 Audit and the FY15 Audit, and therefore each is a concurrent wrongdoer within the meaning of s 1041L of the CA, s 12GP of the ASIC Act and s 34 of the CLA.

166. By reason of the matters pleaded in paragraph 163, 164 and/or 165 above, and pursuant to s 1041N of the CA, s 12GR of the ASIC Act and/or s 35 of the CLA, any liability (which is denied) of Abboud to Deloitte is to be limited to an amount reflecting that proportion of the loss or damage claimed that the Court considers just having regard to the extent of Abboud's responsibility, and the extent of the responsibility of each of the other directors of DSSH, DSSH, Potts, DSH and the NEDs for such loss or damage.

167. In the event that DCF establishes that:

- (a) Potts engaged in conduct in contravention of the Corporations Act, the ASIC Act and/or the ACL NSW (as pleaded in paragraphs 104, 106 and 120 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement);

- (b) DSH engaged in conduct in contravention of the Corporations Act, the ASIC Act and/or the ACL NSW (as pleaded in paragraphs 105, 107 and 120 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement), or breached the terms of its contract with DCF (as pleaded in paragraph 128 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement);
- (c) the DSH Directors engaged in conduct in contravention of the Corporations Act (as pleaded in paragraph 106 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement); and
- (d) the conduct in subparagraphs (a), (b) and/or (c) above caused and/or contributed to the loss pleaded by DCF against each of Potts, Abboud and DSH in paragraphs 145, 148 and 152-154 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement;

each of Abboud, Potts, DSH and the DSH Directors is a person whose acts or omissions caused the loss allegedly suffered by DCF which is the subject of its claim, and therefore, each is a concurrent wrongdoer within the meaning of s 1041L of the CA, s 12GP of the ASIC Act and s 34 of the CLA.

168. Further or alternatively, Abboud:

- (a) repeats paragraphs 14A - 14D, 26A - 26D, 59 - 59A, 66 - 70, 81 - 81C, 88 - 90B and 99A - 99H of the Second Cross-Claim, Amended Statement of Cross-Claim (Abboud Cross-Claim);
- (b) says that, by reason of the matters in paragraph (a) above:
 - (i) Deloitte engaged in misleading conduct in contravention of the Corporations Act, the ASIC Act and/or the ACL NSW in performing the FY13 Audit work;
 - (ii) but for such conduct, the Prospectus would not have been issued with the Financial Information in the form in fact issued, and DCF would not have any liability to DSH for having given the DDC Sign-Off or the IAR in relation to the Financial Information in that form; and
 - (iii) in the premises, the contravening conduct of Deloitte referred to in subparagraph 168(b)(i) above caused and/or contributed to the same loss or damage which is claimed by DCF against Abboud, and therefore Deloitte is a concurrent wrongdoer within the meaning of s 1041L of the CA, s 12GP of the ASIC Act and s 34 of the CLA.

169. By reason of the matters pleaded in paragraphs 167 and/or 168 above, and pursuant to s 1041N of the CA, s 12GR of the ASIC Act and/or s 35 of the CLA, any liability (which is denied) of Abboud to DCF is to be limited to an amount reflecting that proportion of the loss or damage claimed that the Court considers just having regard to the extent of Abboud's responsibility, and the extent of responsibility of each of Potts, DSH, the DSH Directors and Deloitte for such loss or damage.

Contributory negligence

170. In further answer to the whole of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement, Abboud says that, if (which is denied) Abboud contravened s 12DA of the ASIC Act and/or s 1041H of the Corporations Act, and is liable to Deloitte for any loss or damage which resulted from any such contravention, then:

- (a) such a claim is a claim for economic loss allegedly caused by the conduct of Abboud, within the meaning of s 12GF(1B) of the ASIC Act and s 1041I(1B) of the Corporations Act;
- (b) any such loss or damage was suffered wholly or partly as a result of Deloitte's failure to take reasonable care;

Particulars

Abboud repeats paragraphs 26A - 34, 49 - 58, 66 - 70, 77 - 90, 89A - 98 and 99A - 105 of the Abboud Cross-Claim.

As pleaded in those paragraphs, Deloitte failed to take reasonable care in performing each of the FY13 Audit, FY14 Audit and the FY15 Audit; and but for Deloitte's failure to take reasonable care, Abboud would not have signed the Prospectus Management Certificate or the Prospectus Representation Letter, would not have given the CEO/CFO Declarations, the Management Representation Letters or the Directors' Declarations and would not have joined in the resolutions to adopt the Financial Reports in the form in which they were issued, and Deloitte would not have given the DTT Prospectus Consent, the FY14 Audit Report or the FY15 Audit Report in respect of Financial Reports in that form.

- (c) by reason of the matters pleaded in subparagraphs 170(a)-(b) above, and pursuant to s 12GM of the ASIC Act and/or s 1041I(1B) of the Corporations Act, any liability (which is denied) of Abboud to Deloitte is to be limited to an amount reflecting that proportion of the loss or damage claimed that the Court considers just having regard to the extent of Deloitte's responsibility for such loss or damage.

171. In further answer to the whole of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement, Abboud says that, if (which is denied) Abboud contravened s 12DA of the ASIC Act and/or s 1041H of the Corporations Act, and is liable to DCF for any loss or damage which resulted from any such contravention, then:

- (a) such a claim is a claim for economic loss allegedly caused by the conduct of Abboud, within the meaning of s 12GF(1B) of the ASIC Act and s 1041I(1B) of the Corporations Act;
- (b) any such loss or damage was suffered wholly or partly as a result of DCF's failure to take reasonable care;

Particulars

Abboud repeats paragraphs 130 - 132 of the Abboud Cross-Claim.

As pleaded in those paragraphs, DCF failed to take reasonable care in performing its work in relation to the Prospectus; and but for DCF's failure to take reasonable care, Abboud would not have signed the Prospectus Management Certificate or the Prospectus Representation Letter, and DCF would not have taken the steps pleaded in 57, 61 and 63 of the Commercial List Cross-Claim Statement.

- (c) by reason of the matters pleaded in subparagraphs 171(a)-(b) above, and pursuant to s 12GM of the ASIC Act and/or s 1041I(1B) of the Corporations Act, any liability (which is denied) of Abboud to DCF is to be limited to an amount reflecting that proportion of the loss or damage claimed that the Court considers just having regard to the extent of DCF's responsibility for such loss or damage.
