- 7. The Authority appointed pursuant to s 64GA of the Water Act for the Victorian Murray is Goulburn Murray Water.
- 8. At all material times, the volume of water available to RyanAG under the Ryansfield/Cananea Water Access Entitlements, as a proportion of the volume of the full entitlement, was fixed according to seasonal determinations made by Goulburn Murray Water pursuant s 64GB of the Water Act, which determined how much water was available for holders of high reliability water shares in the Victorian Murray, expressed as a percentage of their full entitlements.
- 9. At all material times, Goulburn Murray Water made seasonal determinations in accordance with the Bulk Entitlement (River Murray Goulburn-Murray Water) Conversion Order 1999 (Conversion Order) as amended from time to time.
- 10. At all material times, Goulburn Murray Water was obliged to supply high reliability water share holders with the amounts of water allocated against their maximum entitlements pursuant to seasonal determinations.

Particulars

Conversion Order clause 15

- 11. At all material times, seasonal determinations made by Goulburn Murray Water according to the Conversion Order depended upon determinations made by the MDBA or alternatively the Delegates pursuant to clause 102 of the Agreement of:
 - a. the minimum amount of water estimated to be under the control of the MDBA;
 - b. the allowance to be made until the end of the following May for:
 - i. losses by evaporation and other means in the upper River Murray; and
 - ii. South Australia's monthly entitlement;
 - c. the allowance to be made for deferred water;
 - d. having regard to the matters in subparagraphs (a)-(c) above, the water available
 - i. for distribution (inter alia) to New South Wales before the end of the following May; and
 - ii. for holding in reserve at the end of the following May.

Particulars

Conversion Order clauses 6, 8, 12

- 12. In the events and circumstances alleged at paragraphs [77] to [85] of the 2FASOC and paragraphs [1] to [11] above, the MDBA owed a duty to RyanAG, Ryansfield and Cananea to take reasonable care or alternatively to ensure that reasonable care was taken in:
 - a. exercising the River Operations Functions; further or alternatively
 - b. exercising the Environmental Water Functions; further or alternatively
 - c. exercising the Release Power, to avoid the Risks of Harm that a failure to take care would cause loss to persons in the position of RyanAG, Ryansfield and Cananea (MDBA Duty of Care).

- 13. In the events and circumstances alleged at paragraphs [186] to [187] (2016-17 Breaches), [189] to [192] (2017-18 Breaches) and [194] to [197] (2018-19 Breaches) of the 2FASOC, the MDBA breached the MDBA Duty of Care.
- 14. In the alternative to paragraph [81] of the 2FASOC, if (which is not admitted) the relevant exercises of or failures to exercise:
 - a. the River Operations Functions;
 - b. the Release Power; and
 - c. the Environmental Water Functions;

were acts of the Delegates of the MDBA but not acts of the MDBA, then:

- d. in light of the facts and matters in paragraphs [77]-[85] of the 2FASOC, the Delegates owed a duty to RyanAG, Ryansfield and Cananea to take reasonable care or alternatively to ensure that reasonable care was taken in:
 - i. exercising the River Operations Functions; further or alternatively
 - ii. exercising the Environmental Water Functions; further or alternatively
 - iii. exercising the Release Power,

to avoid the Risks of Harm that a failure to take care would cause loss to persons in the position of RyanAG, Ryansfield and Cananea (Delegates' Duty of Care);

- e. in light of the facts and matters in paragraphs [186] to [197] of the 2FASOC, the delegates breached the Delegate's Duty of Care (Delegates' Breaches);
- f. in light of the facts and matters in paragraphs [16B], [59B] or [74B] of the 2FASOC:
 - i. the MDBA is vicariously liable for the Delegates' Breaches;
 - ii. further or alternatively, the Commonwealth is vicariously liable for the Delegates' Breaches.
- 15. By reason of the 2016-17 Breaches; further or alternatively the 2017-18 Breaches; further or alternatively the 2018-19 Breaches:
 - a. the allocation of water under the Ryansfield/Cananea Water Access Entitlements in the 2019-20 water year was lower than it would otherwise have been;

b. further or alternatively, whilst the allocation by the end of water years 2016-17, 2017-18 and 2018-19 reached 100% of entitlements, the timing throughout the water years 2016-17, 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20 of allocations had the effect that RyanAG, Ryansfield and Cananea could not maximise the income-generating potential of the Ryansfield/Cananea Water Access Entitlements.

Particulars

RyanAG, Ryansfield and Cananea refer to and repeat the particulars to paragraphs [202], [203] and [204] of the 2FASOC and say further that:

- a. a higher volume of water would have been available to Goulburn-Murray Water pursuant to clauses 6 and 12 of the Conversion Order:
- b. seasonal determinations for high reliability water share holders in the Victorian Murray would have been higher;
- c. further or alternatively, allocations for high reliability water share holders in the Victorian Murray would have reached higher allocations earlier the water years 2016-17, 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20;
- d. Ryansfield and Cananea would have received higher allocations of water under the Ryansfield/Cananea Water Access Entitlements;
- e. Ryansfield and Cananea would have received higher allocations of water under the Ryansfield/Cananea Water Access Entitlements earlier in the water years 2016-17, 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20;
- f. the price of water available for purchase in the allocation trade would have been lower;
- g. RyanAG would have had higher volumes of water available to it under the Ryansfield/Cananea Water Access Entitlements to conduct the business of irrigated agriculture referred to at paragraph [1] above.
- h. RyanAG would have had higher volumes of water available to it under the Ryansfield/Cananea Water Access

Entitlements earlier in the water years 2016-17, 2017-18, 2018-19 and 2019-20 to conduct the business of irrigated agriculture referred to at paragraph [1] above;

- i. RyanAG would have been able to purchase water in the allocation trade at lower prices.
- 16. By reason of the:
 - a. 2016 / 2017 Breaches; further or alternatively;
 - b. 2017 / 2018 Breaches; further or alternatively
 - c. 2018 / 2019 Breaches,

RyanAG, Ryansfield and Cananea have suffered loss and damage.

Particulars of loss and damage

RyanAG, Ryansfield and Cananea has suffered loss or damage in the following categories:

- a. reduction in goodwill, including their ability to retain existing supply contracts;
- b. increased costs of business;
- c. lost profits;
- d. loss of opportunity to make a profit.
- e. loss of the market value of the water which it would have received through the Ryansfield and Cananea Water Entitlements;
- f. reduction in the value of the Ryansfield and Cananea Water Entitlements;
- g. reduction in the value of the Yarrawonga Land;
- h. reduction in goodwill, including their ability to retain existing supply contracts;

- i. increased costs of business;
- j. lost profits;
- k. loss of opportunity to make a profit.

Further particulars will be provided before trial.
